

With end of November 2008 many of the BOMOSA plots have been harvested for the first time and were immediately restocked. So far more than 200kg of fish were gathered only in Kenya, in Uganda about 61kg. The fish were harvested together with the community members and sales were organised in most cases directly at the sites.

Fish harvesting at Sagana

Processing

Weighing and packing

Harvesting at Ruthagati

